J. H. WHITTAKER, FOUNDER OF J.H. WHITTAKER

Everyone knows we source the finest ingredients from local producers, so it was only right and good that we are getting together with our world famous chefs. Here is, at last, Whittaker's L&P. It's our little country come together with the finest 'ish stuff' in our fine creamy waffles. Meet our new friends at L&P, the new cafe at the airport.

The sun-sets orange light upon the rugged path, bright, soon to rise again.

This country blinds me;
 Whether waking or dreaming,
 it is all I see.

Distant, white mountains
stand high with caps out of sight,
seeming infinite

Here, the sky is close.
 The cold stars blow through my hair,
 just out of my reach.

The light mist tarried above the dark, green mountains, a natural twilight of beauteous, verdant forces, and I wondered if I could fly

Distant mountain peaks

the flickering light of lives,
glowing by the sea.
